TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
Why is it still Easter? The lilies have long since faded. The roots of our tradition of fifty days of rejoicing from Easter to Pentecost lie in the seven-day rhythm of the Jewish week, drawn from the six days of creation plus a Sabbath day. A favorite name for the Lord's Day among our ancestors in the faith was "The Eighth Day," meaning that in Christ a breakthrough to a new humanity was achieved. With that inner architecture, it makes sense to see Pentecost as a week of weeks, forty-nine days plus one, again signaling that a new age has begun in Christ and the outpouring of his Spirit. The Jewish appreciation for Pentecost gave rise to the Jubilee year, the fiftieth year, when debts were released and prisoners set free. Today, the character of our Easter Sundays is conveyed by joyful Alleluias and the rite of sprinkling at Mass. Long ago, people expressed this joy by suspending all rules of fasting and by never kneeling at liturgy.

These customs all point to our conviction that time is holy. There is an elegant balance to the Christian year: forty days of Lenten fast and discipline give way to fifty days of unrestrained rejoicing. That's why it is still Easter!—James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

" Mary being "full of grace" could be translated "You are full of the Holy Spirit; your life is intimately connected with God." Grace in the proper and deepest sense of the word is not something that comes from God; it is God himself who as the Holy Spirit is in communion with us. Mary is the only wholly open human who boldly places herself in God's hands without fear for her own fate."

--Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

STEWARDSHIP

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes strength and courage to love someone when we feel unappreciated, used or feel our opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage to "love my neighbor" when he may be someone I don't like, someone I don't know or someone that doesn't look like me.

This week Bishop Robert Barron shows us how "God Speaks Our Story" and how we are "Responding to God" during Mass.

We have heard someone say "I'm too busy to go to Mass." Or "I don't get anything out of it." Would these same people be too busy to go to a movie or to a sporting event? What do they get out of doing either of those activities. They would probably respond "I had fun", or "I took a nap instead", or "I had a few drinks", or "I enjoyed spending time with a friend" or any of a myriad of things.

Would they do those same things if they had the opportunity to do so with a movie or sports star? You bet most of them would. What about the opportunity to spend time with the "Real King of the World?"Do we really need to THINK about what that decision should be. Bishop Barron teaches us about our communication exchange with Jesus during every Mass. What is Jesus saying to us? Why is he saying it? What is our response? Why do we say it? Who is helping us? What else do we hear during the Mass?

Join us on Wednesday morning at 9:30 AM or on Wednesday evening at 7:00 PM in the Queen of the Universe Parish Center for Lessons 3 and 4 "God Speaks Our Story" and "Responding to God" of Bishop Robert Barron's program "THE MASS" to find out what we have been missing. Come right from 8:30 AM Mass and start your day with a cup of fresh coffee and a breakfast treat. All are welcome.
