Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.
A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18

First Reading — Those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever (Daniel 12:1-3).
Psalm — You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Psalm 16).
Second Reading — Where there is forgiveness, there is no longer offering for sin (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18).
Gospel — Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away (Mark 13:24-32).

ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

THANKS

One act of thanksgiving when things go wrong with us is worth one thousand thank-yous when things are agreeable to our inclination.
—St. John of Ávila

STEWARDSHIP

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living."
(MARK 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

RCIA News and Updates

The RCIA session on Thursday, November 15 will be held in the Church beginning at 7:00. The Catechumens and Candidates will practice for the Rite of Acceptance and Welcome. which will be celebrated on Sunday, November 18 at the 9:30 Mass. Fr. John Will formally greet the Catechumens and Candidates along with their sponsors in the back of the church before the procession begins.

For the Catechumens, this rite marks the first transition in their journey of faith—the move from being an interested inquirer to becoming a Catechumen. This Rite symbolizes movement into the community of Queen of the Universe. During the Rite the inquirers make public their intention to be baptized and ask for the support of the parish community. They are then asked to more fully embrace the Gospel message with the help of God. They are signed with the Cross on their forehead and presented with a cross necklace to show that they now belong to Christ.

Inquirers who have been previously baptized and are ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. They are asked if they are ready to listen to the apostles' instruction, to gather with our worshipping community in prayer, and to join our community in the love and service of others. They are also signed with the Cross on their forehead and presented with a cross necklace to show that they belong to Christ. After the Rite they are known as candidates.

The parish community of Queen of the Universe is asked to pray and reach out in welcome as we walk together in faith.

Faith Formation

Why would Jesus choose a rugged, undereducated fisherman to lead His Church? Discover the answer in "PETER – KEEPER OF THE KEYS", part of The Footprints of God series - The Story of Salvation from Abraham to Augustine.

He is called the Rock, the Fisher of Men and Head of the Church. But how did Peter – a rustic fisherman – come to deserve such honor and authority? Join with us and Stephen Ray, best-selling author and dynamic speaker, on a journey of adventure and discovery. Follow Peter from Galilee to Jerusalem to Rome.

Along the trail we will discover answers about the infallibility of the Pope, papal succession, the truth of Catholic teaching and much more! We will see why Jesus chose this simple fisherman and his papal successors to be the Keepers of the Keys and Shepherds of the Church. All this in an energized, high-impact adventure that is a travel documentary, biography, Bible study, apologetics course and Church history study.

Join us in the Parish Center on Wednesday at 9:15 am or 7:00 pm for this great program.

"Cross Train Your Faith" is part of the Queen of the Universe Adult Faith Formation Program to provide programs -of-study, and present information of Catholic learning, for the adults of Our Parish Family.
