In Loving Memory of :	In Loving Memory of :
Sister St. Leonard, OSF	Helen Krumenacker

First Reading: Elijah waits on the mountain for the LORD to pass by (1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a).

Psalm: Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation (Psalm 85).

Second Reading: From the Israelites, with their law and the prophets, comes the Christ (Romans 9:1-5).

Gospel: As Jesus walked on the sea, the disciples were terrified (Matthew 14:22-33).

Readings and Reflection for Sunday, August 20

First Reading: Thus says the LORD: "Stand firm in justice; do what is right" (Isaiah 56:1, 6-7).

Psalm: O God, let all the nations praise you! (Psalm 67).

Second Reading: The gifts and the calling of God are unable to be revoked (Romans 11:13-15, 29-32).

Gospel: Jesus told the Canaanite woman of great faith, "It shall be done as you wish" (Matthew 15:21-28).

CALLED TO ACT IN GOD'S NAME

"Let all the nations praise you!" (Psalm 67:4) today's psalm response exclaims. In the psalms and other Hebrew scriptures, this kind of invocation is actually an invitation to God to act, to intervene in human lives in a manner that will cause everyone—not just the Chosen People—to give praise. Stated a bit more strongly, it is something of a "put up or shut up" challenge to God, the sort of strong statement the psalmists of Israel, trusting in their intimate and loving relationship with God, were not afraid to make.

The Gospel has its own exclamation, announcing the appearance of the Canaanite woman with "Behold!" (Matthew 15:22) "Behold!" is a scriptural flag that tells us that God is about to act or announce something through an individual or a situation. In the case of Jesus, God was going to act through this woman, whom nobody among Jesus' followers would have believed to be an agent of the divine will. Like the psalmists, we might passively inform or perhaps even actively challenge God to do something so that everyone will come to belief, but God will always turn the tables on us. It becomes our calling, our duty (as it was for Jesus) to behold the situations and persons of our daily lives so that God can act through us, so the Kingdom can be announced through our living.

STEWARDSHIP

"He said, "Come". Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus."
- MATTHEW 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you responded immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has in mind for you.

FORMED® THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

FAITH FORMATION

Cross Train Your Faith

DO YOU KNOW what language or languages the Bible was originally written?

Two books of the Old Testament - Wisdom and II Maccabees - were written in Greek. The rest of the Old Testament was written in the Hebrew language. The New Testament was written in Greek, with the exception of St. Matthew's Gospel which - according to the unanimous testimony of Christian antiquity - was written in Hebrew or Aramaic.

The books of the Bible were very likely written in the cursive style of writing. The cursive (or "running hand") style joins the letters of a word together as when we write today. In addition, the ancients had two other styles of writing: the lapidary (from the Latin word, lapis, meaning stone) and the uncial (from the Latin word uncia, meaning inch). The lapidary style was followed in inscriptions on stone monuments and used only capital letters. The uncial style was used in fine editions of books and in elaborate Bibles and employed large disconnected letters resembling the capitals. In "uncial" writing there were no spaces between the words or sentences and punctuation marks were used rarely. The word "uncial" comes from St. Jerome's description of some Bibles of his time as being written in "letters an inch high."
Material above from:
http://www.cathtruth.com/catholicbible/bookbook.htm

The original texts did not have punctuation, nor were they divided into chapters and verses. All punctuation was added by translators. As a result there are some differences. Old Testament books were first divided into chapters around 1440 AD. The chapters were further divided into verses in the late 1400's and early 1500's. The system used today was developed in the mid 1500's.

Flame of Love Cenacle:

A Flame of Love Cenacle meets every Tuesday at 11:00 in the Parish Center in Our Lady of Guadalupe Room (located on the first floor) for a short video teaching and discussion. At 12:00, we retire to the chapel to pray the Rosary and other prayers outlined by the Flame of Love Movement.

A second opportunity to participate in a Flame of Love Cenacle will begin on Tuesday night at 6:00 p.m. We will meet in the Parish Center chapel. The teachings will focus on True Devotion to Mary by Saint Louis de Montfort. Prayers will follow.

Please come join us in the beautiful devotion to our Blessed Mother dedicated to spreading the Grace of her Divine Son, Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you have any questions about the Flame of Love, please contact Diane DiLorenzo at 267-718-8278.
