READINGS FOR SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9

First Reading -- Take off your robe of mourning and misery; put on the splendor of glory from God (Baruch 5:1-9).
Psalm -- The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).
Second Reading -- I am confident that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus (Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11).
Gospel -- The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth (Luke 3:1-6). The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

AWAITING THE SALVATION OF GOD

The world does not seem big enough to contain the jubilation of the first reading. In the Gospel reading, the Roman empire isn't big enough, either. The great powers of Rome are named and made to stand waiting for the arrival of God's salvation. And we find Paul meditating joyfully on what really matters.

According to Baruch, the city of Jerusalem is like a person standing on tiptoe looking for Gods salvation, which is coming from the east. Those who were led away on foot, heads down, now come back, a proud people. Why, the very way is smoothed out. The path is lined with fragrant, lush trees.

It can't get any better than this, can it? Well, yes, it can. For a voice calls out in the desert. Here is the beginning of the salvation of God. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Riches are the instrument of all vices, because they render us capable of putting even our worst desires into execution.
--St. Ambrose

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

"Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Advent". That is the title of the Cross Train Your Faith program for the next three weeks. Really, I never realized that Advent had Jewish roots. I thought that since it is preparation for the coming of the birth of Jesus at Christmas that Advent is New Testament. It is that, and much more.

Dr. Brant Pitre brings out the real meaning of Advent for us in this program in a way we have never heard it done before. Dr. Pitre discusses the readings for each Sunday of Advent by including the Gospel from all three Church cycles (A, B, and C) in each presentation.

What will happen at the End of Time? What is the purpose of Advent? What do The unexpected coming of the Son of Man; Flood, Fire, and Scoffers at the Second Coming of Christ; The Need to Watch and Stay Awake; and The Tribulation and the Coming of the Son of Manhave to do with Advent?

Come find out. Join us on Wednesday, December 5 in the Parish Center at 9:15 am or 7:00 pm to see Part 1 of this great program –"The Second Advent of Jesus at the End of Time", a discussion of the readings for the First Sunday of Advent.

"Cross Train Your Faith" is part of the Queen of the Universe Adult Faith Formation Program to provide programs-of-study, and present information of Catholic learning, for the adults of Our Parish Family. Advent Music Announcement

During the Advent and Christmas seasons, we will once again sing the Communion Antiphon. Historically, the communion antiphon was a chant sung by a soloist, the choir, or the congregation during the distribution of Holy Communion. This ancient practice is common to both Eastern and Western liturgies and is mentioned in the writings of St. Cyril of Jerusalem and St. Augustine. The General Instructions to the Roman Missal (GIRM) have this to say regarding the Communion Antiphon:

86. While the priest is receiving the Sacrament, the Communion chant is begun. Its purpose is to express the communicants' union in spirit by means of the unity of their voices, to show joy of heart, and to highlight more clearly the "communitarian" nature of the procession to receive Communion. The singing is continued for as long as the Sacrament is being administered to the faithful.

87. In the dioceses of the United States of America there are four options for the Communion chant: (1) the antiphon from The Roman Missal or the Psalm from the Roman Gradual as set to music there or in another musical setting; (2) the seasonal antiphon and Psalm of the Simple Gradual; (3) a song from another collection of psalms and antiphons, approved by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops or the diocesan Bishop, including psalms arranged in responsorial or metrical forms; (4) a suitable liturgical song chosen in accordance with no. 86. This is sung either by the choir alone or by the choir or cantor with the people.

This is how it will work:

1. The cantor will first sing the entire communion antiphon him/herself.
2. The cantor will then intone the congregational refrain
   (included in the printed Communion Antiphon Supplement in the hymnals.)
3. The congregation will sing that refrain with the cantor.
4. The cantor will chant the verses.
5. The congregation will sing the refrain between each verse.

After the antiphon is sung, we'll move onto an appropriate congregational hymn as we normally do. It is our hope singing the Communion Antiphons will draw us closer to the universal church and into a deeper prayer experience during the reception of Holy Communion.

Additionally, we will also sing the Sanctus (Holy) in Latin. It is #932 in the hymnal. During the Lenten season, we learned and sang the Holy from the Chant Mass in English. We'll use the same Chant Mass melody but with the beautiful Latin text instead!

"But didn't the Second Vatican Council change all that Latin stuff?" Not really. The Council permitted the Mass to be celebrated in the vernacular [language of the people] but never desired that we completely abandon Latin. Latin is the universal language of the liturgy and deserves special recognition in our celebrations. It is a way of demonstrating that we are part of something much bigger than our neighborhood; we are part of the universal church. Every Mass is a celebration of the heavenly liturgy. It is you and I joining with all our Catholic sisters and brothers on earth and everyone in heaven to praise God.

PARISH ANNOUNCMENTS

On Thanksgiving Day, we put up two Christmas trees decorated with paper ornaments of different shapes and colors. This is our "Giving Tree" program for the year. Schools, nursing homes and other agencies have identified families and people in great need, and have asked us to donate specific gifts that they will give to those people. Take one or a few of the ornaments off the tree, and buy that gift. Wrap it, either in paper or a gift bag, and put the ornament prominently on the front of the gift. Bring it back to the church by Sunday, December 16.

Please note - this ornament tag is the ONLY way we can identify which agency/family the gift needs to be delivered.

Thank you for your overwhelming generosity! -Mike Nolan & the Giving Tree Committee

Youth In Action!

Our next Youth in Action meeting will take place on Monday, December 10 at 6:45 p.m. in the Parish Center. All 6th - 8th grade students are welcome to join us. We will have a quick prayer meeting, complete our monthly service project and have some snacks!
RSVP to Mrs. Raffin at quprepadm@gmail.com

Listen Hearing Assistance Program

REMINDER: Our Hearing Assistance Program is available for use! We are able to provide parishioners hearing assistance devices during Mass. We currently have four devices available and some that work with existing hearing aid devices.

Please see the Sexton in the back of church before Mass if you would like to borrow a Hearing Assistance Device. Devices should be returned to the Sexton at the end of Mass.

Been Away for Awhile? No matter how long you have been away, and no matter what the reason, we invite you to consider renewing your relationship with Jesus and the Church. All Are Welcome! Please call 215-945-0215 or email quformation@gmail.com.
