TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (Exodus 22:20-26).

Psalm — I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18).

Second Reading — You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10).

Gospel — You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5

First Reading — Do we not have one father? Did not the one God create us? (Malachi 1:14b — 2:2b, 8-10).

Psalm — In you, Lord, I have found my peace (Psalm 131).

Second Reading — You have received not a human word but the word of God (1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13).

Gospel — Call no one your father on earth; you have but one Father, the one in heaven (Matthew 23:1-12).

THE GREATEST AMONG US

Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.

STEWARDSHIP

*“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.”
- Matthew 22:37*

Do you put other “gods” before God? Is your love of money, power, status or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you really recognize that everything you have and everything you are is a gift from God? The good news – it’s not too late to put God first in your life in all things.

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

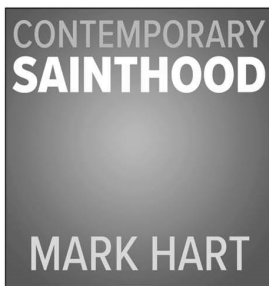

Contemporary Sainthood

By Mark Hart

Be the Saint God Created You to Be

In this inspiring double feature, Mark Hart boldly challenges and encourages you to be the saint God created you to be. As the Church gathers to celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1st, fuel your spiritual life with invaluable insights into unleashing the power of the Holy Spirit and the dangers of putting human expectations on our supreme God.

Listen on formed.org

"I enjoyed this very inspiring talk... surrender will be my new motto. Thank you!"

RCIA:

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The topic for our next gathering is "The Holy Spirit and the Life of Grace." We all can recall the prayer to the Holy Spirit, "Come Holy Spirit fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love." We know that we cannot get to heaven on our own. We all need help.

Please come to the RCIA discussion of the Holy Spirit and the Life of Grace on Thurs, Nov. 3, at 7:00 PM in the Parish Center. Maybe you already have a strong relationship with the Holy Spirit that you can share with our candidates and you can also be refreshed by the Symbolon presentation of the Holy Spirit and the Life of Grace. All are welcome!

Cross-Train Your Faith:

DID YOU EVERY WONDER HOW MANY SAINTS THERE ARE IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? Let's rephrase the question – How many holy men and women are recognized by the Catholic Church as saints?

The first canonized saint was Saint Ulrich of Augsburg in the year 993. Prior to that time people were recognized as saints by popular acclaim, mostly because they were martyrs. Many of them were only known or venerated in particular areas. Since there was no formal process for canonization until 1588 when Pope Sixtus V established the Congregation for the Causes of Saints there really is no way for us to determine the number of saints. There also was no formal listing of those proclaimed as saints. Estimates have put the number at over 10,000, but they are only guesses.

If we think about it, there are numerous holy men and women who were, or rather are, saints, but whose status as such is not known, or, at least, not known now to us. Let us remember ALL the Saints on Wednesday.

Wednesday is ALL SAINTS DAY, Cross Train Your Faith Session will not meet. Please join us on November 8 at 9:30 a.m. or 7:00 p.m., when we resume our weekly sessions with The 13th Day, the story of Fatima, in honor of the 100th anniversary of the appearance of Our Lady of Fatima. For more information contact Andy Pastorek at 215-943-2469 or by e-mail at a.pastorek@verizon.net.

Flame of Love Cenacle:

A Flame of Love Cenacle meets every Tuesday at 11:00 in the Parish Center in Our Lady of Guadalupe Room (located on the first floor) for a short video teaching and discussion. At 12:00, we retire to the chapel to pray the Rosary and other prayers outlined by the Flame of Love Movement.

A second opportunity to participate in a Flame of Love Cenacle will be on Monday night at 5:30 p.m. We will meet in the Parish Center chapel.

If you have any questions, please contact Diane DiLorenzo at 267-718-8278.
