TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the acts of giving from our abundance and attending to the needs of the poor open us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

STEWARDSHIP

“And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.” - Mark 3:25

Do your parish ministries complement each other or do they compete against each other? Is your parish “one Body of Christ” or a bunch of little, separate ministries controlled by human ego? The goal of all parish ministries is to bring people to Christ. All of our parish work should be for the glory of God’s name, not our own name.

CROSS TRAIN

YOUR FAITH

Cross Train Your Faith

Wow! We just finished another year of study about our beautiful faith. Those of you who have been joining us on Wednesdays since 2009 have discovered that we are living in the greatest time of Catholicism. There is so much fantastic educational information available to us, by many great teachers.

That is what Cross Train Your Faith is about – helping all Catholics, wannabe Catholics, and anyone else who is interested to delve into this plethora of wonderful teaching.

We are taking three months off so we can all enjoy the beautiful weather (we pray) that the Lord has to offer at this time of the year. The Cross Train Your Faith team will also be planning the schedule of programs to be offered beginning in September. During the summer, we will continue teaching with the Did You Know columns and updates of progress on the next schedule. Please watch this column weekly for more information.

Feel free to share this with friends, neighbors and anyone you know who may be interested.

Cross Train Your Faith meets every Wednesday at 9:30 AM and at 7:00 PM in the Queen of the Universe Parish Center, between early September and late May. There is no cost to join us. No registration is required. Just show up. Watch for the new schedule/calendar of programs.

"Cross Train Your Faith" is part of the Queen of the Universe Adult Faith Formation Program to provide programs -of-study, and present information of Catholic learning, for the adults of Our Parish Family. For more information contact Andy Pastorek at 215-943-2469 or by e-mail at a.pastorek@verizon.net.
