

cpsncc presents

2019

"Accepting the Gift"

catholic parents of special needs children

conference 2019

Saturday, April 27, 2019

9:00am to 5:00pm

Mater Ecclesiae Roman Catholic Church

261 Cross Keys Road, Berlin, New Jersey

A day designed for Catholic parents of special needs children featuring four talks, continental breakfast & lunch, and an opportunity to attend Mass, Adoration, and Confession.

2019 cpsncc speakers & guests

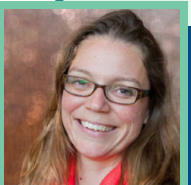

Mary Lenaburg

Ave Maria Press author
"Blessing Over Burden: Choosing a Life Woven with Joy and Hope"

David Rizzo

Author of numerous books
on special needs catechesis
"Take This All of You: Catechesis for Children with Special Needs"

Kelly Mantoan

CPSNCC chairwoman and writer
"Finding Peace in the Margins: How to Avoid Burnout"

Panel Discussion

with expert guests
"Catholic Answers to Tough Questions"

Rev. James Bartoloma

Diocesan Chancellor of Camden, NJ

DiAnn Ecret, PhD, MSN, RN, MA

National Catholic Bioethics Center, Philadelphia, PA

$49.95 for in-person attendance | $19.99 for online attendance*

Tickets can be purchased online through the conference website cpsncc.org.

Online attendance is intended for parents who are unable to attend in person due to distance or caregiver duties. Online attendance tickets can be purchased in advance and will give you access to live stream talks on the day of the event.*

All attendees will get access to recordings of the conference talks, plus access to an online library of additional talks and resources.

www.cpsncc.org | information@cpsncc.org