ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

STEWARDSHIP

"…I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God."COLOSSIANS 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

Father Arechabala's Desk

Dear Sons and Daughters of Our Lady,

On July 16th we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, which is the foundation for the brown scapular devotion. The Carmelite Orders trace their roots back to Mount Carmel in the Old Covenant. In the Old Covenant, mountains were a symbol of encounter with the divine. Mount Tabor is where the Apostles Peter, James, and John saw Jesus in His transfigured glory, the Mount of Olives was where the Lord prayed in His agony. Our Lord offered Himself on the wood of the Cross atop Mount Golgotha. As you can surmise this theme of mountains being a place of divine encounter continued to be true in the New Covenant. This was true for Mount Carmel. The Carmelite Order sees in the example of Elijah encountering God in a whispering wind (read 1 Kings 19) as an affirmation of their charism to seek God in the silence. However, it should be noted that devotion to God through true devotion to Mary is not unique to the Carmelites. This devotion finds its foundation in the words Jesus spoke to St. John while He was on the cross: Behold your mother.

The Brown Scapular is a popular sign of this devotion to Jesus through Mary, but I imagine that some of us who wear it have not considered the roots of this devotion. The scapular is the piece of the religious habit that rests like a banner on the front and back of the one who wears it. Over time a small version of the scapular was given to lay faithful to wear as a sign of their entrustment to that order. They were to pray, and work in a manner that manifested their desire to live by that particular order's charism. In return they are promised to receive the spiritual benefits of that order. In the case of the brown scapular many have focused their attention on the words: who shall die wearing this will not experience the eternal flames. As a result it seems that many people treat it as some kind of amulet, or magical get out of Hell free card. However, it should be clear that is not what is at all. In her appearances at Fatima, Our Lady instructed the three shepherd children to pray the Rosary, and as a result Sister Lucia stated: the Rosary and the Scapular are inseparable. Therefore we should pray the Rosary daily.

As we continue our novena to Good St. Ann we should ask her to increase our devotion to her daughter under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. If we do not grow tired in our efforts we will soon obtain what we long for. May we always be faithful to Christ's invitation: Behold your Mother.

Ad Jesum per Mariam! To Jesus through Mary!

Faith Formation

Cross Train Your Faith

Last Sunday we explained the credence table, which holds the sacred items used by the priest during Mass.

After the Liturgy of the Word, at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the altar servers move the sacred items from the credence table to the altar. The first one that the priest uses is called the corporal.

The word corporal is from the Latin word corpus (meaning "body"). It is a square white linen cloth which is placed on the altar over the altar cloth during Mass. The other sacred items that the priest uses are all placed on the corporal. The corporal is also used under the monstrance during Eucharistic exposition and on the bottom of the tabernacle under any vessels inside.

In the Roman Mass, before Vatican II, the host was placed directly on the corporal. Pope Silvester I specified that the corporal was to only be made of linen. In the early days of the Church, it was so large that the corporal covered the entire altar. The deacon was tasked with opening it and spreading it upon the altar and folding it up after Communion.

This cloth catches any particles when the priest breaks and eats the host. After Communion, the corporal is folded multiple times to make sure that none of the particles or drips of the Precious Blood are dropped on the floor. There are prescribed directions for washing the corporal.

Words of Wisdom– "If your god allows you do whatever you want, then your god is you."

Queridos Hijos e Hijas de Nuestra Señora:

El 16 de Julio celebramos la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Monte Carmelo, que es el fundamento para la devoción del escapulario de color marrón. La Orden Carmelita tiene sus raíces allá en el Monte Carmelo de la Antigua Alianza. Las montañas de la Antigua Alianza eran el símbolo del encuentro con lo divino. El Monte Tabor es donde los Apóstoles Pedro, Santiago y Juan vieron a Jesús en la Transfiguración de su Gloria; el Monte de los Olivos fue donde Jesús oró durante Su agonía. Nuestro Señor se ofreció a Sí mismo en la madera de La Cruz arriba del Gólgotha, en el Monte Calvario. Tal y como podrán asumir este tema de que las montañas sean el lugar para encuentros con lo divino, sigue siendo cierto en la Nueva Alianza. Esto fue cierto para el Monte Carmelo. La Orden Carmelita ve el ejemplo de Elías al encontrar a Dios en el susurro del viento (Reyes Capítulo 1, Versículo 19) como la afirmación de su anhelo de encontrar a Dios en el silencio. Sin embargo, debe de anotarse que la devoción a Dios a través de la devoción a María no es sólo practicada por los Carmelitas. Esta devoción está basada en las palabras que Jesús dijo a San Juan mientras estaba en La Cruz: Hijo, he ahí a tu madre.

El Escapulario Marrón es un signo muy conocido de la devoción a Jesús a través de María, pero imagino que algunos el que de ustedes usa el Escapulario no ha tomado en consideración las raíces de esta devoción. El Escapulario del Hábito Religioso que se lleva como un cártel apoyado en el pecho y la espalda de quien lo lleva. Con el tiempo, una versión muy pequeña de esta Hábito Escapular fue entregado al laico creyente para que lo use como un símbolo de esa Orden. Ellos debían rezar y trabajar de tal manera que se demostraran su deseo de vivir según las reglas de esa Orden. A cambio se les prometió que recibirán las mismas bendiciones de las que se beneficia esta Orden. En el caso del escapulario marrón, muchos han fijado su atención en las siguientes palabras: Quien muera usando esto nunca experimentará las llamas eternas. Como resultado parece que muchas personas lo usan como una especie de amuleto como una Carta Mágica para librarse del Infierno. Y sin embargo, debería quedar claro que de ninguna manera es así. En su aparición en Fátima, Nuestra Señora instruyó a los tres niños pastores que rezaran el Rosario, y como resultado la Hermana Lucía dijo: El Rosario y el Escapulario son inseparables. Por lo tanto debemos rezar el Rosario todos los días.

Al continuar con nuestra Novena para La Buena de Santa Ana, deberíamos pedirle que acreciente nuestra devoción hacia su Hija bajo el título de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo. Si no nos cansamos en nuestro esfuerzo, pronto recibiremos aquello que tanto anhelamos, que es ser fieles a la invitación de Cristo: Hijo, he aquí a tu Madre. Ad Jesum per Mariam! Hacia Jesus a traves de Maria!

¡Alerta de fraude! Tenga en cuenta que el Padre John nunca enviará correos electrónicos a feligreses, ni a feligreses ni a feligreses de mensajes de texto, ¡y le pedirá dinero o tarjetas de regalo de cualquier forma! Ningún sacerdote de la Reina del Universo, o cualquier otra parroquia, contactaría directamente a un feligrés y le pediría tarjetas de regalo o dinero.
