READINGS FOR AUGUST 16

First Reading — Thus says the LORD: “Stand firm in justice; do what is right” (Isaiah 56:1, 6-7).

Psalm — O God, let all the nations praise you! (Psalm 67).

Second Reading — The gifts and the calling of God are unable to be revoked (Romans 11:13-15, 29-32).

Gospel — Recognizing the Canaanite woman’s great faith, Jesus told her, “It shall be done as you wish” (Matthew 15:21-28). The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969,

WHY PRAY? The “foreigners” as Isaiah calls them, the “Gentiles” as Paul calls them, or the “Canaanites” as Matthew calls them are called to worship the one true God in prayer. As we listen to today’s readings, perhaps we are tempted to ask: Why pray? The question is rhetorical; it is tantamount to asking why should friends talk to one another or people in love kiss one another. Prayer is a way of relating to God, a way of talking to God. The apostles had the opportunity to talk to Jesus in the flesh. We have the opportunity to talk to Jesus Christ in prayer. Our relationship with him must be enthusiastic; it cannot be faint-hearted. John Donne, a fifteenth-century poet, knew what the qualities of good prayer were. Donne asks God to treat him differently from most Christians. The poet does not want God to merely “knock, breathe, shine, and seek to mend,” but also to “break, blow, burn, and make me new” (Holy Sonnets, XIV).

It takes a dynamic faith on our part to come to God in prayer. As Jesus once said, “Knock and the door will be opened to you” (Matthew 7:7). It may take pounding the door down, but if we are as persistent as the woman in today’s Gospel, the results will follow.

STEWARDSHIP

“He said, “Come”. Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.” - MATTHEW 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you responded immediately and trust that He knows what He’s doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say “yes” to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

LETTER FROM FATHER JOHN

Dear Friends in Christ,
I am writing this letter to first thank you for your prayers during this difficult time. We continue to navigate our “new reality as a parish community, united through the love of Jesus”. Also, thank you for your wonderful co-operation with the new CDC and Archdiocesan directives for Mass. It’s very much appreciated even though it’s difficult for all of us.

If COVID cases remain stable and we stay in the “Green Phase”, the 4:00 PM Saturday Vigil Mass will tentatively commence on Saturday, September 5th.

As you know, Queen has only one priest (yours truly) assigned here. This is not likely to change in the foreseeable future. Getting priests to cover Masses has always been difficult, but even more so now, in the age of COVID. Because of this, daily Mass on Mondays will be discontinued. Also, the 5:00 PM Sunday Mass will be permanently discontinued.

Please be assured of my continual daily prayers for you and please continue to keep me in your prayers as well.

God Bless You!
Father John

CROSS-TRAIN YOUR FAITH

Challenges, challenges, challenges. It seems like they are never ending. But, that is what we are supposed to expect from God. How many times have you heard someone say, "Why does God let this or that happen?" or "Why didn't God stop this or that from happening?"

Edison failed to refine the light bulb (one of the few creations he merely refined but did not invent) so many times it took him 10,000 attempts to perfect. However rather than accepting failure 9,999 times he is quoted as answering questions on his failures as rather: "I have not failed. I have just found 9,999 ways that do not work".

Edison did not blame God for all of his failures, he just continued on until he found what worked. What kind of lighting would we have today if after his first failure he had said "Why did God not make this work?" Did you ever wonder why some people always seem to have problem after problem after problem. Might it be because they consider each challenge as a problem. I read somewhere that only one in over every 100 million living things on earth has the power to reason. We are each the one noted above. Having the ability to reason means we have the ability to accept a challenge and problem solve.

I am still open to the "challenge" of how to solve the "problem" to get us back together when this pandemic is over. One consideration is to wait until the pandemic is considered over to put together a schedule. Another is to put together a schedule with one or two session programs, so we can pick up anytime. A third option is to put together a schedule of programs and start from the beginning when we can resume. If you have any suggestions, please feel free to contact me – see below for contact information.
