REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Lent is the time of year we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today's readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism.

Peter's letter gives an explicit explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience? The words proclaimed by Jesus immediately following his temptation show us the way: "Repent, and believe in the gospel" (Mark 1:15). It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived by our baptismal promises.

STEWARDSHIP

“Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.”
1 Corinthians 10:31

Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He’s not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other “gods” (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, “I’m I going this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?”

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Worldwide Consecration to St. Joseph
Beginning February 15 until Friday, March 19, 2021

This year the entire Catholic Church is celebrating the Holy Year of St. Joseph. An effective way to place ourselves and our families under St. Joseph’s strong protection is to make a consecration to him. The Marians of the Immaculate Conception are leading an online worldwide consecration to St. Joseph starting on February 15 and ending on the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Husband of Mary on March 19, 2021. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia invites all of her clergy and faithful to participate!

For more details and to sign up, visit:

Read in the Year of St. Joseph!

Father John has recommended the book being used in this worldwide consecration.

The book is: Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father by Father Donald Calloway. The book is offered in English, Spanish, and in e-book and audiobook formats.

Year of Saint Joseph

December 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021

Catholics around the world rejoice over the Holy Father’s opening of the Holy Year of St. Joseph to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the Proclamation of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. The entire Archdiocese of Philadelphia is encouraged to spend this year growing closer to St. Joseph by honoring him, imitating his virtues and asking for his intercession.

To find local events, prayers and faith study resources to celebrate the Year of St. Joseph, visit archphila.org/joseph.

Please join St. Augustine Parish (Philadelphia) as we host five virtual discussions during LENT on the Sacraments of Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony & Holy Orders. Why Confession? Can't I just tell God I'm sorry? Why are Last Rites now called Anointing of the Sick? Can a divorced person receive Communion? Why does the Church only ordain men as priests? We will discuss and answer these and other questions you might have. On the fifth and final night, our Zoom presentation is entitled: “How does it all come together?” We will discuss how all of the sacraments are tied together and the theology behind the teachings. Join us and our special guest participants via Zoom on the dates and times listed!

- When taking your seat, please honor all posted signs about where you may sit. Certain pews will remain blocked off to maintain social distancing.
- Members of the same household may sit together as normal.
- Please place 6 feet between your household and members of a different household.
- Ushers will be present to assist you and your family in finding an available pew. You may be asked to move as needed. Please follow the directions of the ushers and parish staff. If no seats are available, you will need to move outside but can still receive Holy Communion.
- Our capacity for every Mass is 166 people. If our capacity is reached, you will be asked to wait outside. A Eucharistic Minister will bring Holy Communion outside if you wish to receive.

Per Archdiocesan and CDC guidelines, masks must be worn in order to enter the church. Please place your mask on prior to entering the church building. While face shields may also be worn, they must be used with a mask and should not replace a mask.

Masks should be well-fitting and cover both your mouth and nose. Masks must remain covering both mouth and nose while you are in church. Ushers will ask you to fix your mask if it is not worn properly.

Recent studies show that a significant portion of individuals with COVID-19 lack symptoms (are "asymptomatic") and that even those who eventually develop symptoms (are "pre-symptomatic") can transmit the virus to others before showing symptoms.
