STEWARDSHIP

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

Leviticus 19:15, Queen of the Universe

BY THE WAY

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

I hope you are all having a relaxing and enjoyable summer! Next weekend, Queen of the Universe Parish is happy to welcome Br. Valerian McHome of the Brothers of Jesus the Good Shepherd as our Missionary Co-op speaker this year. Br. Valerian will be speaking at all the Masses about his order's mission and a second collection will be taken up after Holy Communion. Br. Valerian's order is a rather new religious congregation founded in 1994 in Tanzania, Africa. The primary mission of the order is to aid priests in their ministry of teaching and forming people in the faith, especially where there is a lack or shortage of priests. I know that you will welcome Br. Valerian with open hearts and arms. Below is a picture of some of the brothers with the founder of their order, Bishop Rogath Kimaryo.

IS HAPPINESS EVEN POSSIBLE?

The Lord seems to promise us an abundant life if we follow after Him. And yet, the lives of Christians seem equally difficult and sad as the lives of their non-Christian contemporaries. So, what's the difference? Why bother with the Gospel?

In this talk, Fr. Gregory Pine will explore the question of human happiness and describe the role played by choice and prudence in securing it.
